Transtar Commercial Trading Agreement Terms

This trading agreement sets out the terms by which Transtar may agree to extend commercial credit (Trading Agreement). No modification, amendment or other variation of these terms shall be valid and binding on Transtar unless made in writing and duly executed by or on behalf of Transtar.

All Services provided by Transtar are subject to Transtar's Standard Trading Conditions which are attached to this Trading Agreement and available online at www.transtar.net (as amended from time to time). This Trading Agreement adopts the definitions contained in Transtar's Standard Trading Conditions unless stated otherwise.

Signing this Trading Agreement constitutes written acceptance of the terms set out in this Trading Agreement and Transtar's Standard Trading Conditions. Please ensure you read these terms carefully before signing this Trading Agreement. By signing this Trading Agreement on behalf of the Customer, you hereby confirm that you are authorised to enter into this Trading Agreement on behalf of the Customer.

“Customer” means the party entering into this Trading Agreement.

TERMS OF ACCOUNT

- All customs charges (including Duty & GST) are payable by the Customer on a Direct EFT or Deferred GST basis directly with Australian Customs. Transtar may also extend commercial credit for customs charges (including Duty & GST) subject to written agreement with Transtar for direct debit of these charges to the Customer's credit card.
- All standard invoices are payable strictly within 30 days of an invoice date, unless otherwise agreed in writing with Transtar. Transtar may agree or decline to extend the payment terms in its absolute discretion but in any event the total amount owing by the Customer to Transtar at any given time must not exceed the Estimated Credit Required as noted above without Transtar's prior written agreement. Invoices in respect of disbursements are payable seven (7) days from an invoice date but in any event, prior to delivery of Goods.
- Commercial credit extended by Transtar is subject to written agreement with Transtar and may be subject to further review and withdrawn without prior notice but at any given time the total credit extended by Transtar to the Customer must not exceed the Estimated Credit Required as noted above without Transtar's prior written agreement.
- You must advise Transtar in writing of any changes to the information provided in this Trading Agreement within five (5) business days of such change occurring.

If you fail to observe any of the above terms, or you have made a misrepresentation to Transtar, or you have provided information which is incorrect or dishonest, the commercial credit extended by Transtar may be withdrawn and all charges made to an account will become due and payable immediately.

If you fail to observe any of the above terms, or you have made a misrepresentation to Transtar, or you have provided information which is incorrect or dishonest, the commercial credit extended by Transtar may be withdrawn and all charges made to an account will become due and payable immediately.

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT

The Customer hereby consents and authorises Transtar:

- a) to obtain information about its personal or commercial credit worthiness from its bank or any trade reference provided in this document and any other credit provider and credit reporting agency for the purposes of assessing the Customer's commercial credit profile, or in connection with any guarantee; and
- b) to use, disclose or exchange with other credit providers information about the Customer's personal or commercial credit arrangements in order to assess the Customer's commercial credit profile (including whether to accept a person signing as a guarantee), monitor credit worthiness and collect overdue accounts.

Transtar is bound by and complies with the National Privacy Principles in relation to the collection and disclosure of information regarding individuals. If you do not provide the personal information requested in this document, Transtar may be unable to process this Trading Agreement.

GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

In consideration for Transtar entering into this Trading agreement with the Customer, each director of the Customer must sign this Trading Agreement and, by signing this Trading Agreement on behalf of the Customer, each director of the Customer acknowledges and agrees that it:

- a) jointly and severally guarantees to Transtar the performance of the Customer's obligations under this Trading Agreement including the due and punctual payment by the Customer to Transtar of all monies payable by the Customer to Transtar under or pursuant to this Trading Agreement (Guaranteed Obligations); and
- b) indemnifies Transtar against all losses, damages, cost and expenses (direct or consequential) which Transtar may suffer or incur by reason or consequence of a failure, refusal or default by the Customer with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations.
